

About Yourself

In a short paragraph, please tell us about yourself (you may wish to talk about; your interests, what pronoun you'd like to be referred to as, the nationality you identify with, family, gender)

My name is Tim, I identify as a 'he' and am an Eastbourne born and bred inhabitant, so I am an English national though prefer to think more openly of being of the UK and Europe. I have a family of 5 with my wife Anne, who works in education and 3 fairly grown-up children: Joel, Sarah and Shay all in their 20's.

I like to keep fit and be active; I am a member of the Brighton Uni. Gym and swim regularly. I run a little and often do parkrun though am cycling more of late. I read about politics and world situations and enjoy listening to 'Our own correspondent,' on radio 4 which gives an anthropological understanding from varied world situations.

I have just read a Dawn French book 'Because of You' and am looking to read Richard Osman's third book in a sequence of a murder trilogy next. I find it hard to resist a McVitie's digestive biscuit and like to sing but, I spare the world, - mostly on my own.
