

About yourself

In a short paragraph, please tell us about yourself (you may wish to talk about; your interests, what pronoun you'd like to be referred to as, the nationality you identify with, family, gender)

Hi, I'm Emma and a Lead Manager and Crisis Resource Manager in Scotland amongst other things.

I have been with Anderida 12 years so longstanding and really enjoy the work we do with all our young people and colleagues and the expansion and path that the company have afforded me.

When not at work, I have a passion for basketball and do this in various countries around the world. It's also key to my down time.

I am the middle child of three, so the blue-eyed girl lol and originally from London, now living in Scotland. I am British, but my dad and his mum hold Belgium nationality so I have significant family out there.

Love a good laugh in and out of work, love the sun and being near a beach or on the countryside.

Latest acquisition is a paddle board that I try to get out all the time when I can and am not commuting the country.
